Bio :

Hidden Gentlemen are a 3 piece Alt. Pop/Rock band from Somerset. Their core sound is made with the classic 3 piece rock line up of Guitar, Bass and Drums with all members singing. Not happy with being another generic rock band all 3 members also add synths which bridges the gap from rock to pop in their live and recorded sound.

Mark grew up singing to classic rock which is reflected in his natural raw voice drawing relation to Free and David Bowie. Greg has a great natural feel to his bass playing managing to play harmonies to complement Mark's guitar while locking into the deep groove Kyle lays down.

Members:

Mark Anthony – Vocals, Guitar

Greg Shepheard – Bass, Vocals

Kyle Cullen – Drums, Vocals

Reviews:

'Open the door to a smokey bar, if you look around you'll find the hidden gentlemen are here.

Hidden Gentlemen are a rock trio with some electronic tinkering on their album which gives it a very new wave feel. With relaxed grooves and heartfelt lyricism it's hard not to get into their music' – Left Of The Dial

'Hidden Gentlemen are old hands at the music game and their no nonsense (or bullshit for that matter) approach is something impossible to fault.' – Musically Fresh'

The first song on the EP is Sound Of Your Own Voice. This song has an almost hypnotic quality to it, it's relaxing and it draws you in.' – Opinion Overload Bristol
